

Dear Mr. Ringwald,

I am writing to apply for the position of Disability Support Worker, listed on your company's website. With over 7 years of experience working with disabled individuals, I possess the comprehensive skill set and hands-on understanding necessary to affect positive, overreaching outcomes in this role.

In addition to my formal training and certifications in CPR, First Aid, CPI, and certification as a Disability Support Worker from the School of Human Services and Community Safety, I possess a caring and sensitive personality, as well as a genuine interest in helping others to become more independent. I am comfortable working one-on-one with people of all ages and varying levels of ability, and I apply my varied life experience and a non-judgmental approach to identifying and analysing the training needs of the individuals I support.

The attached resume provides further detail about how my qualifications and background are a match for your team's needs in a Disability Support Worker. I look forward to the opportunity to learn more about this opportunity and to discuss how I can contribute my strengths at Foyer Care Worldwide. I appreciate your taking the time to review my credentials and experience.

Sincerely,
Tia Petersen
